Hi,

below is the error message and original email message I tried to send.
Somehow my email is rejected as spam or virus content. But when i sent a smal test email to the same email address, it gets through.

Thanks,

Robert

Hi,

I recently received the book "Satanic Voices, Ancient & Modern" [1][2]. A very interesting book, which apparently was already written in 1992 as a response to Salman Rushdie's "Satanic Verses". Its however a very uptodate book, even by today's standards, where global developments sometimes even surpass the speed of light.

The chapter 'Carved Turkey' gives a concise description of how the Ottoman Empire was heisted by the crypto Zionists, and how 'The Young Turks' took over, starting with the controversy and dispute between France and England over how to benefit from the Suez Canal in Egypt. Yes that's right, The Ottoman Khedive was even the ruler over Egypt!

Pidcock introduces the concept of 'Generic Engineering', Badge Engineering, head swapping or product assimilation if you like, in the areas of theology, mythology, cults and legends, whilest still restricting to the boundaries of the Holy Qur'an. The Qur'an is the last writing which has not yet touched upon by the destructive and embracing tactics of Freemasonry, who always need such efforts in order to use the Qur'an inside their arsenal of perverted and assimilated religions.

The preface contains a interesting discussion about the Epistle to the Hebrews :

"As stated elsewhere, it is very important to remember that the official religion of The Children of Israel was not Judaism, this being a much later development which related purely to the desire of the tribe of Judah to emerge as top nation and spiritual leaders of the first Islamic nation - Israel -, contrary to the Mosaic Law.

The Law was given to Moses was that the High Priest of Israel were all to be from the tribe of Levi, not Judah. Therefor Judaism would not have been the name given to the religion of Moses. If a tribal name had been intended it would surely have been the tribe of Levi and Leviism, and not Judah and Judaism as we have been led to believe. The right to Levitical Priesthood could only be inherited from the tribe of Levi in the line of Amran or Imran, as is confirmed in the Qur'an [3:33-37].

This posed a big problem for the early Christian Jews, like Paul who was in charge of damage control for the Temple Elders and their masters, the Money Changers. His task was to usurp the authority of Christ's real disciples, like Barnabas the Levite, by successfully supplanting their true authentic monotheistic Testaments with his own brand of Grecco-Roman polytheism.

Paul's Epistle to the Hebrews in the Scofield Reference Bible states [whether written by Paul or another, the point of view is Pauline]: "We undoubtedly have here the method of Paul's synagogue address", and "No book of Scripture more fully authenticates itself as inspired." - Inspired indeed, but by what spirit?

In Hebrew 5:1, Paul begins his subversive attack on the Levitical Priesthood, casting doubt on the Horse of Levi in favor of the House of Judah, attempting to undermine the divine right and authority in the Levite family of Amran/Imran, whose offspring include Moses, God's Messenger; Aaron, Israel's High Priest; Mary, the mother of Jesus, and Elizabeth, her cousin, who were the daughters of Aaron, i.e. Levites (cf. Luke 1:5).

Pat Boon, the American singer and evangelist, said there are two kinds of Judaism, one Orthodox and the other Christian. In other words, Christianity is Judaism with the ethics and sentiments intact. In trying to sell the idea of a 'New Jewish Covenant' to the more Orthodox sects, it was necessary for Paul and others to fabricate plausible stories and arguments in order to hijack control of the Priesthood through which he could then propagate his heretical polytheistic ideas.

So Mary, the mother of Jesus, and inside the New Testament/Covenant the mother of God, was actually a descendant of the Levite tribe after all. The New Testament describes this new Covenant inside the 'Epistle to the Hebrews' in more detail, elaborating on the details of the Levitical Priesthood. See Hebrews 7 and 8. Pidcock however like the Levite tribes of today has not much confidence in this point of view. He even suggests that 'The New Jewish Covenant' is what we today can recognize as Jewish Communism, and ends with "By their fruits you will know them!" .

Well that's just blatantly wrong in my opinion. Jewish Communism as was first seen inside Bolshevik dominated Russia, was actually a pilot plan setup by the Jewish order of B'nai B'rith. To let even the leading figure of the Islamic Party of Britain buy into that fabricated explanation, merely shows how successful B'nai B'rith has been in setting up both sides of the conflicting parties. See also "The Cause of our Conflict" [3]. Pidcock also used the Scofield Reference Bible inside his introductory discussion, where we today know that Scofield was actually a paid operative of B'nai B'rith with Theodore Herzl as his Grand Master.

So who wrote Epistle to the Hebrews then? The King James Bible 1611 ed. ends "Epistle to the Hebrews" with :

" Written to the Hebrewes, from Italy, by Timothie."

See :

http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Epistle\_to\_the\_Hebrews
http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Image:Author\_Hebrews.jpg

From <http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Timothy> :

"In the year 80 (though some sources have this as the year 97 with Timothy dying at age 80), Timothy tried to halt a pagan procession of idols, ceremonies and songs. In response to his preaching of the Gospel, the angry pagans beat him, dragged him through the streets and stoned him to death. In the 4th century, his relics were transferred to the Church of the Holy Apostles in Constantinople."

If "Epistle to the Hebrews" was posthumously added to 'received scripture' we could see it as a revenge writing, stating what will come about in good old Jewish pharisee styled and inspired prose. Like Moses, Timothy tried to warn and prevent paganism, but unlike Moses Timothy payed with his life.

Pidcock wrote a very concise book (224 pages) about a hot subject which at least will give the reader a good starting point about what's really going on in today's theater of media and press deception. That David Musa Pidcock got it slightly wrong inside his preface I can forgive him, as the path to printing truth can only embark from studying fabricated and flawed starting points.

Regards,

Robert
